

Audrey Lang (she/her/hers) is a playwright born and raised in New York City. Her plays include You Have To Promise (Pride Plays 2020, dir. Jenna Worsham; finalist for American Stage's 21st Century Voices New Play Festival), Rye Bread (semi-finalist for Play-Makers Spokane's Women Are Funny Prize), Dear Anna (Ithaca Theatre Collective; MCC FreshPlay Festival), The Field Trip (Undiscovered Countries, dir. Rana Strazza), alex getting better, Birdie and Cait, and Lily Ineffable. Audrey's short plays and monologues have been performed at Theatre503, New Wimbledon Theatre, Chapel Playhouse, Kitchen Theatre Company, Primary Stages, and most recently, with The 24 Hour Plays Viral Monologues (Pride Plays edition). Associate member of the Dramatists Guild, member of Ring of Keys, 2017 resident at SPACE on Ryder Farm, alumna of MCC Theater Youth Company Playwriting Lab. B.A. Theatre Studies, Ithaca College. www.audreyglang.com